

Medicaid Transmittal Letter (MTL) No. 3334-22-02

TO: Eligible Providers of Medicaid Services
Chief Executive Officers, Managed Care Plans (MCPs)

FROM: Maureen M. Corcoran, Director

SUBJECT: Rescission of Children with Medical Handicaps Rule

Summary

Rule 5160-1-03, entitled "Medicaid: relationship to the children with medical handicaps program under Title V of the Social Security Act" has been rescinded as of 7/1/2022 because the content has been incorporated into rule 5160-1-08 of the Administrative Code and is no longer necessary. This rule describes the Ohio Medicaid program's relationship to the Children with Medical Handicaps (CMH) program under Title V of the Social Security Act. For individuals eligible for both Medicaid and CMH, this rule provides that unless a Medicaid covered individual has third party insurance or Medicare, Medicaid will pay health care claims first. If third party insurance or Medicare is present as well, claims should be submitted to the applicable insurance first and then be sent to Medicaid. The rescission is effective July 1, 2022.
